

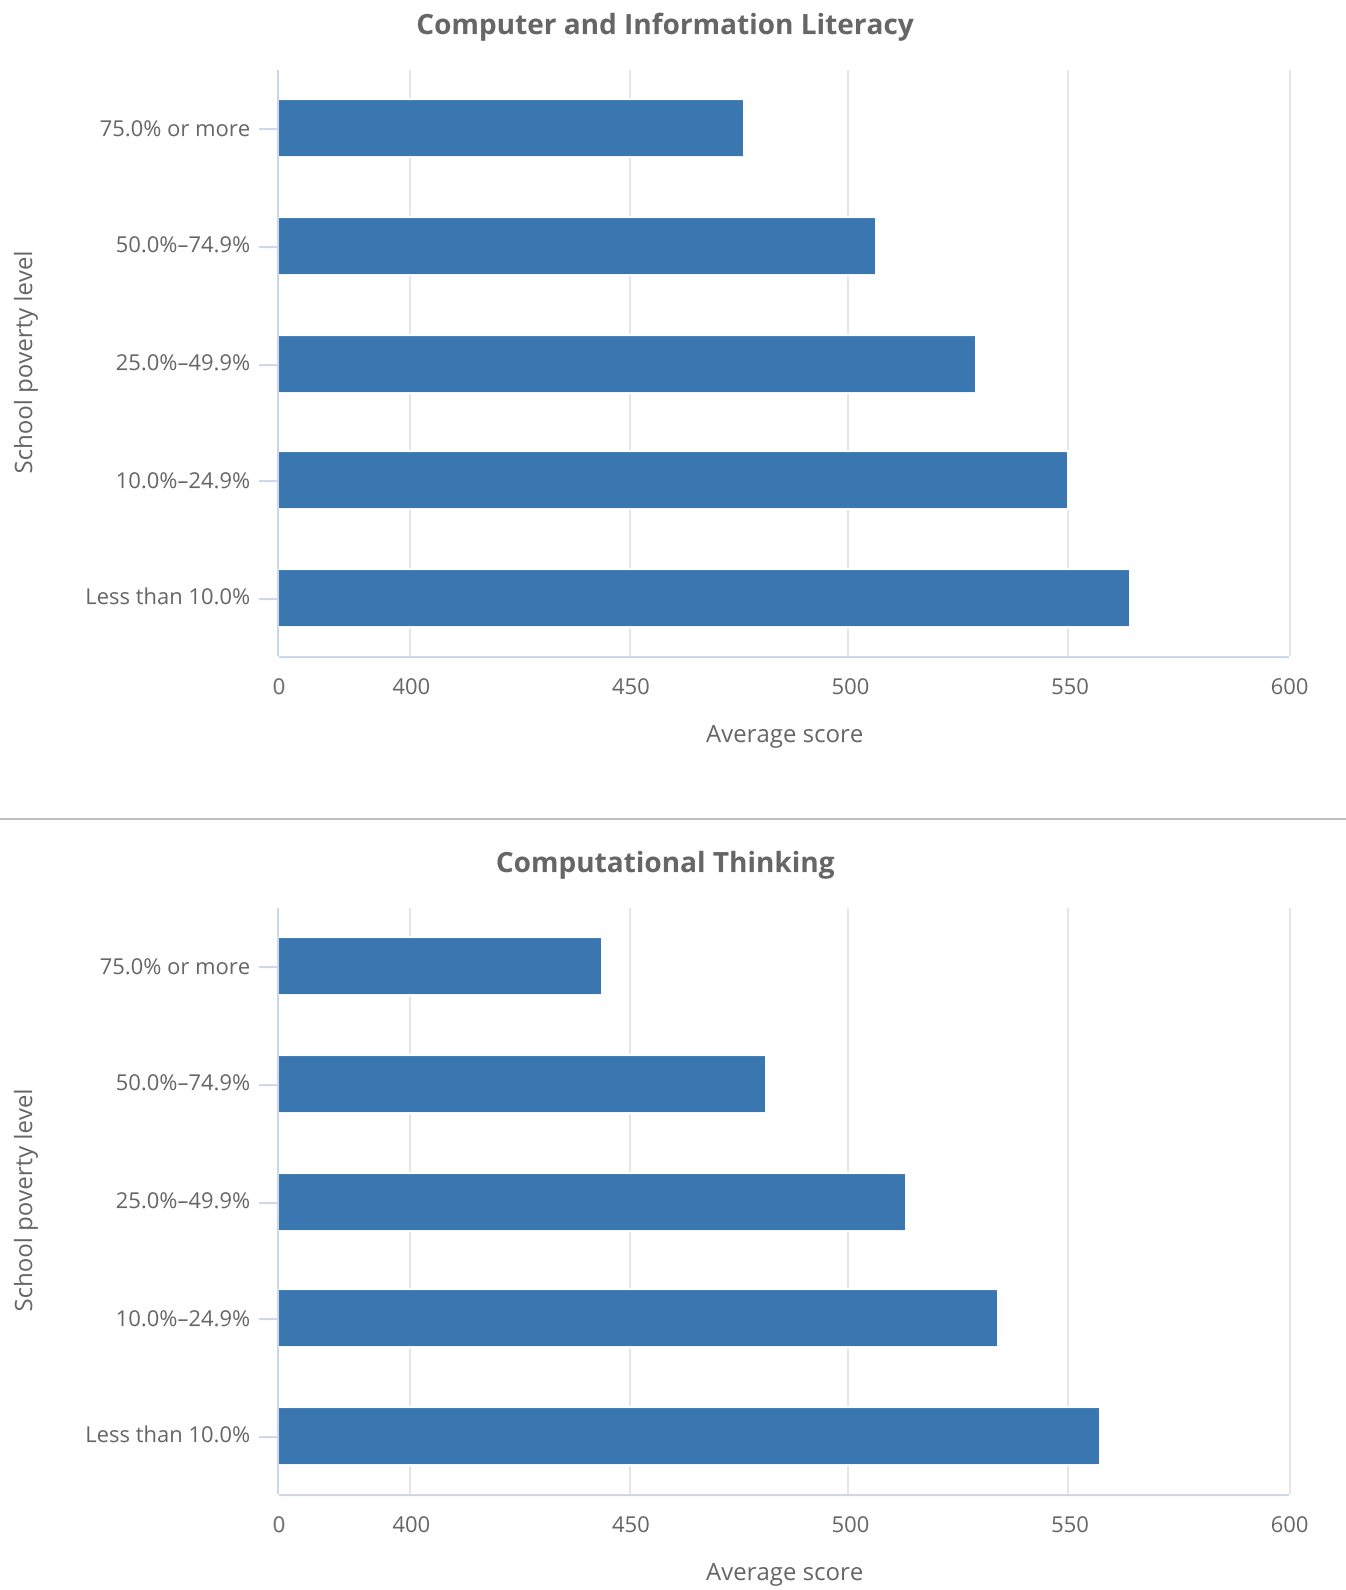

Figure K12-11
Average CIL and CT scores of U.S. students in grade 8, by school poverty level: 2018

CIL = computer and information literacy; CT = computational thinking.

Note(s):

The scale of CIL and CT scores is 100–700. School poverty level is the percentage of students eligible for free or reduced-price lunch.

Source(s):

International Association for the Evaluation of Educational Achievement (IEA), International Computer and Information Literacy Study (ICILS), 2018.
<https://nces.ed.gov/surveys/icils/icils2018/theme1.asp?tabontop>.

Science and Engineering Indicators